1. Qualitative Information on Quarterly Financial Results

(1) Explanation of Operating Results

Regarding the performance of the Group during the cumulative first quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year, net sales were 83,178 million yen (up 7.9% year-on-year), as semiconductor and electronic component-related products continued to perform strongly due to increased demand related to AI, as well as due to solid sales volumes of adhesive products for seals and labels. In terms of profitability, despite a significant increase in procurement costs for naphtha-derived raw materials and auxiliary materials due to escalating tensions in the Middle East, as well as higher fixed costs including labor costs and research and development expenses, operating income was 6,873 million yen (up 18.4% year-on-year), ordinary income was 7,143 million yen (up 27.2% year-on-year), and profit attributable to owners of parent was 5,399 million yen (up 41.4% year-on-year), due mainly to higher sales volumes and the positive effects of selling price revisions.

The outline by segment was as follows:

[Printing and Industrial Materials Products]

	Cumulative first quarter of the previous consolidated fiscal year	Cumulative first quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year	year-on-year
			Change	Rate of change
	Millions of yen	Millions of yen	Millions of yen	%
Net sales	45,107	48,358	3,251	7.2
Printing & Variable Information Products Operations	35,899	38,744	2,844	7.9
Industrial & Material Operations	9,207	9,614	406	4.4
Operating income	751	799	48	6.4

Net sales in this segment were 48,358 million yen (up 7.2% year-on-year), due to solid sales volumes in Japan, as well as the positive effects of selling price revisions and yen depreciation. Despite the impact of a substantial increase in raw material prices, higher fixed costs, and also a deterioration in process yields in the United States, operating income was 799 million yen (up 6.4% year-on-year).

Sales by operation of this segment were as follows:

(Printing & Variable Information Products Operations)

As for adhesive products for seals and labels, in Japan, although demand, especially that related to food products and beverage campaigns, was sluggish, overall sales increased due mainly to the effects of price revisions and steady demand for medical and logistics applications, as well as eye-catching labels. Outside Japan, overall sales increased due mainly to higher sales volumes and yen depreciation. As a result, net sales in this operation were 38,744 million yen (up 7.9% year-on-year).

(Industrial & Material Operations)

In Japan, sales of automobile-use adhesive products decreased, but overall sales increased due to strong growth in window films. Overseas, although demand for window films recovered in the United States, demand for automobile-use adhesive products declined in the ASEAN region. As a result, net sales in this operation were 9,614 million yen (up 4.4% year-on-year).

[Electronic and Optical Products]

	Cumulative first quarter of the previous consolidated fiscal year	Cumulative first quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year	year-on-year
			Change	Rate of change
	Millions of yen	Millions of yen	Millions of yen	%
Net sales	22,764	25,481	2,717	11.9
Advanced Materials Operations	20,541	23,810	3,269	15.9
Optical Products Operations	2,222	1,671	(551)	(24.8)
Operating income	4,738	5,756	1,018	21.5

Net sales in this segment were 25,481 million yen (up 11.9% year-on-year), mainly as semiconductor and electronic component-related products continued to perform strongly due to increased demand related to AI. Despite the impact of a substantial increase in raw material prices and higher fixed costs including research and development expenses, operating income was 5,756 million yen (up 21.5% year-on-year), due mainly to higher sales volumes.

Sales by operation of this segment were as follows:

(Advanced Materials Operations)

Although sales of semiconductor-related devices saw a decrease, semiconductor-related adhesive tapes and multilayer ceramic capacitor-related tape continued to perform well due to reasons such as increased demand related to AI data centers and smartphones. As a result, net sales in this operation were 23,810 million yen (up 15.9% year-on-year).

(Optical Products Operations)

Although sales of light diffusion films remained solid, sales of adhesive tapes for OLED displays decreased significantly. As a result, net sales in this operation were 1,671 million yen (down 24.8% year-on-year).

[Paper and Converted Products]

	Cumulative first quarter of the previous consolidated fiscal year	Cumulative first quarter of the current consolidated fiscal year	year-on-year
			Change	Rate of change
	Millions of yen	Millions of yen	Millions of yen	%
Net sales	9,202	9,338	135	1.5
Fine & Specialty Paper Products Operations	3,744	3,513	(230)	(6.2)
Converted Products Operations	5,458	5,824	366	6.7
Operating income	288	301	12	4.5

Although sales in Fine & Specialty Paper Products Operations were sluggish, net sales in this segment were 9,338 million yen (up 1.5% year-on-year), due to steady performance of Converted Products Operations and the positive effects of selling price revisions. Despite the positive effects of selling price revisions, due mainly to a significant increase in raw material prices and higher fixed costs including depreciation, operating income was 301 million yen (up 4.5% year-on-year).

Sales by operation of this segment were as follows:

(Fine & Specialty Paper Products Operations)

Despite solid sales of oil-resistant papers, overall performance was sluggish, including a decline in demand for core products like color papers for envelopes. As a result, net sales in this operation were 3,513 million yen (down 6.2% year-on-year).

(Converted Products Operations)

Despite a decrease in sales of casting papers for synthetic leather, sales of release papers, casting papers for carbon fiber composite materials, and release films for optical-related products remained solid due to increased demand. As a result, net sales in this operation were 5,824 million yen (up 6.7% year-on-year).
